Girl Scout Policies

Admission to Troops. A girl who meets or can meet membership requirements should not be denied admission or access to Girl Scout program because of race, color, ethnicity, creed, national origin, socio-economic status, or disability.

Troops Sponsored by Religious Groups. When a Girl Scout troop is sponsored by one religious group, members of different faiths or religious affiliations within the troop shall not be required to take part in religious observance of the sponsoring group.

Political and Legislative Activity. Girl Scouts of the United States of America and any Girl Scout council or other organization holding a Girl Scouts of the United States of America credential may not, nor may they authorize anyone on their behalf to, participate or intervene directly or indirectly in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office; or participate in any legislative activity or function which contravenes the laws governing tax-exempt organizations.
